

A lush green landscape featuring a wooden deck in the lower-left foreground. The deck is made of light-colored wood and has a simple railing. The ground is covered in tall, green grass and various plants, including some with small pink flowers. In the background, there is a dense forest of tall trees with green foliage. The overall scene is bright and natural.

East Dean and Friston

RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

EAST DEAN & FRISTON RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

Your voice as local residents

Home

About ▼

Neighbourhood Plan

Environment

EDGL

Links

News ▼

Gallery

Contact

Have you visited our website
yet?

www.edfra.org.uk

Membership UP 12%

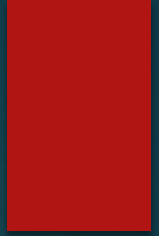

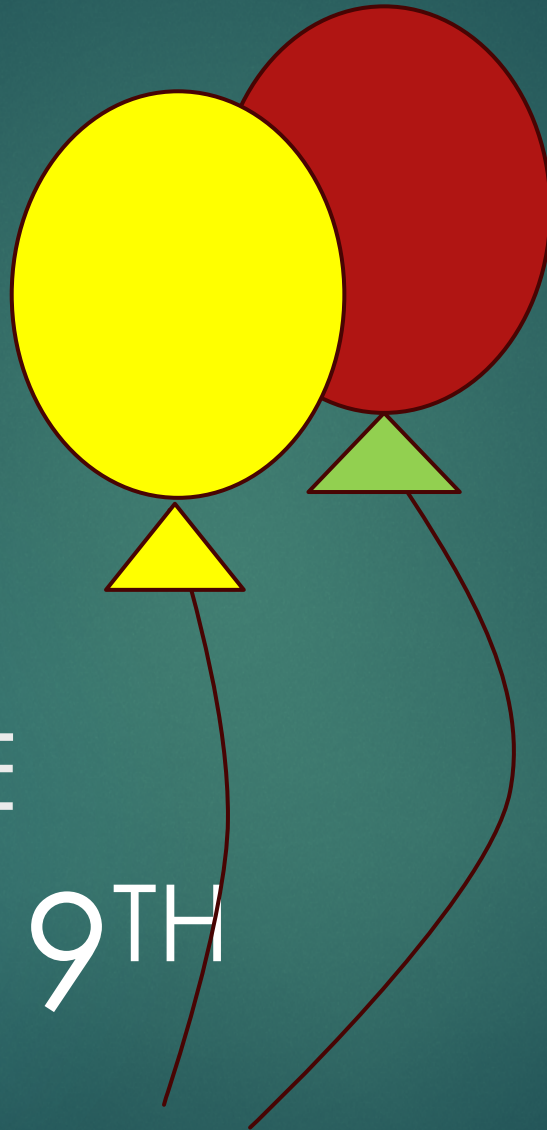

Events for all!

SUMMER FETE 2024

2025 FETE
JULY 19TH

Two new benches

- beautifully modelled by two of our committee!

Socialising!

Reduced priced tickets for members

Supported local clubs and organisations.....

Greensward Wild Flower Project

The Open Art Exhibition

The Parish Magazine

The Village Hall Trust

Educational presentations

Safety around the village

EAST DEAN & FRISTON RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION

Membership fees remain the same for the year to March 31st 2026

A photograph of a brick village hall with a red-tiled roof and white stone accents. A wooden fence is in the foreground, and a sign on the building reads 'VILLAGE HALL'. The sky is overcast.

Not a member? Why not give us a try😊

RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION